As with all the psalms from 120 to 134, the title reads: ‘A Song of Ascents.’ It is a hymn of joy at the wonder of the return from Exile, when YHWH carried out his promise to restore the fortunes of his chosen people – a promise to which the following texts witness:

The voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voices of those who sing, as they bring thank offerings to the house of YHWH: 'Give thanks to YHWH of hosts, for YHWH is good, for his steadfast love endures forever!' For I will restore the fortunes of the land as at first, says YHWH.

Restored to life

<sup>2</sup>Then our mouth
was filled with laughter, and our
tongue uttered
shouts of joy.

Then it was said
among the nations,
'YHWH has done
great things for
them.'

<sup>3</sup>YHWH has done
great things for us,
and we are celebrating.

<sup>4</sup>Restore our fortunes, YHWH, like
the watercourses in the Negeb.

The ransomed of YHWH shall return, and come to Zion with singing; everlasting joy shall be upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

– Isaiah 35:10

The wilderness and the dry land shall be glad, the desert shall rejoice and blossom; like the crocus it shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice with joy and singing ... Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped; then the lame shall leap like a deer, and the tongue of the speechless sing for joy. For waters shall break forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert; the burning sand shall become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water.

For they went out from you on foot, led away by their enemies; but God will bring them back to you, carried in glory as on a royal throne. For God has ordered that every high mountain and the everlasting hills be made low and the valleys filled up to make level ground so that Israel may walk safely in the glory of God. The woods and every fragrant tree have shaded Israel at God's command. For God will lead Israel with joy, in the light of his glory, with the mercy and righteousness which come from him.

of joy, carrying their sheaves.
